
 * SEMI-CONTINENTAL HAT OF HEMP *

Black velvet is becoming against the face whether the wearer of a hat is old or young. A stunning spring hat has a facing of this rich fabric on a broad-brimmed white hemp. The model in a modified continental, worn well down on the head, the high flare being at the left side.

The crown is surrounded by a band of dull gold lace and a big chou of this metallic trimming is disclosed where the brim curves.
